

Michal Sarig-Kaduri

Executive Director, IGF (Israel Growth Forum)

Michal Sarig-Kaduri is the Executive Director of the IGF (Israel Growth Forum), composed of 25 global technology companies, and Government Relations Manager at Wix.com, working at the intersection of the business sector, policy, and society.

An ex-diplomat and human-rights lawyer by training, she has held senior roles in NGOs and as a strategic consultant on multi-sector collaboration, a field she is currently researching in her PhD on public-private partnerships. She is a member of the founding team of The High-Tech Delegation to the March of the Living, an initiative that brings global technology leaders into a shared commitment to historical memory and social responsibility.