

Ms. Alison Comite

Ronald S. Lauder Fellow

Alison Comite, born in New York City, is in her second year at the University of Pennsylvania studying Science, Technology and Society and Linguistics. On campus, Alison currently serves as a WJC Ronald S. Lauder Fellow, Co-Chair of the Penn Israel Alliance, works as Campus Director for the Start-Up Nation Mentorship, and was a Campus Director for the Israel Summit. Alison grew up involved in the Young Judaea youth movement, which fostered her love of the Jewish community and Israel. She has also been one of the co-chairs of the Food Pantry, the largest teenage run food pantry in the United States.
