World Jewish Congress
OPERATIONS - INTERNSHIP POSITION

The World Jewish Congress (WJC) is the international organization that represents over 100 Jewish communities and organizations around the world. It advocates on their behalf towards governments, parliaments, international organizations, and other faiths. The WJC represents the plurality of the Jewish people and is politically non-partisan.

WJC Operations has opened an internship position to assist with a substantial new project, showcasing the reach and interconnectivity of neo-Nazis and extreme far-right movements internationally.

This internship opportunity is best fitted to those individuals interested in learning more about extremism around the world, those with a passion and commitment for advocating for the Jewish community and combating antisemitism, and those seeking to improve their drafting and research skills and to gain practical experience in the work of a large organization.

Internship description:

The intern will work closely with the Operations team and the Case Managers for Combatting Antisemitism. They will assist in the day-to-day work of the project, inter alia, data input, research, and publishing and marketing the project results.

Qualifications:

- The position is open to students and graduates in international relations, politics, law, communications, or related subjects.
- The successful applicant will have strong commitment to Human Rights as well as commitment and understanding of the Jewish diaspora interests.
- Strong research and written communication skills in English are required. Knowledge of other European languages (i.e., French, German, etc.) is an asset.
- Understanding of Microsoft 365 and AirTable is an asset.
- Strong interpersonal and teamwork skills, independent thinking and initiative are essential.

Terms and conditions:

- The internship position is unpaid. Students should check with their academic institution to see if they are able to gain academic credit for their internship with the World Jewish Congress.
• Interns are asked to commit for a minimum period of 6 weeks and to work 10-15 hours per week.

• Starting date: ASAP

The World Jewish Congress is an equal opportunities employer.

Applications can be submitted through this link.

CV & Motivation Letter are required for all applicants.