

Ms. Vicky Chehebar

Commissioner for Gender Equality,
Latin American Jewish Congress

Vicky Chehebar is a Colombian philanthropist. Throughout her career, she has focused her work on initiatives geared towards children, fighting against bullying and discrimination. She is the former President of the Sephardic Ladies Association in Colombia, and sits on the board at several other organizations, including the Confederation of Jewish Communities of Colombia and Techo. In 2020 she was appointed LAJC Commissioner on Gender Issues.